Our counselling services are free for all,
regardless of nationality or religious affiliations.

We look forward to hearing from you!

General Social Counselling

Is available to all refugees and their families, regardless of having a Residence Status. The different and complicated legalities can shape the living situation of refugees. As a result of these complications, refugees are encouraged to seek the counsel of Social Workers to assist with strategies and developing interventions. Counselling, support, as well as Cooperative Partners can help in regards to themes such as Arrival, Duration and Residence Permits. Questions surrounding returning voluntarily to your home country can also be addressed. Social Workers are also present within refugee residences to assist and support refugees in a variety of cases and areas.

Asylum Process Counselling

A service focused on newly arriving refugees in State-run residences within NRW. Counselling and support with questions related to the asylum process, or to the German-wide transfer of refugees into social residences.

Projects

We take part in projects related to language, education and working, as well as social participation.

Volunteering

Voluntary engagement with refugees is in demand and supported.

“The Church is at your side as you seek a more dignified life for yourselves and your families. To all of you”

Pope Francis, Lampedusa, June 8th, 2013

Refugees are People in Need

Pope Francis looked at the word during a difficult time for humanity, and reminded us of the duty of the church, to be involved with assisting refugees.

Fleeing puts people in challenging situations. The refugee situation shows us that fleeing isn't an easy decision, but rather has religious, ethnic, political or other root causes. People from all around the world are affected by the terrible experiences of violence or trauma, the experiences of persecution and displacement. Irrelevant of where people find refuge, the consequences are the same here for everyone. It means losing your home, your family, and all of your life-long possessions.

CaritasSozialdienste Rhein-Kreis Neuss GmbH offers qualified and competent counselling and support for refugees in Rhein-Kreis Neuss.

In addition to personal counselling and projects, we support and guide people in their voluntary engagement with refugees.
